Het wereldje van Beer Ligthart Jaap ter Haar 2013-05-16 Beer kan het bijna niet geloven: door een stom ongeluk is hij van het ene op het andere moment blind. Niets kan hij meer zien en dat maakt de wereld opeens heel anders. Het lijkt wel of hij alles opnieuw moet leren. Het lijkt hem vreselijk om de rest van zijn leven afhankelijk te zijn van andere mensen. Maar Berend merkt dat hij toch op zichzelf kan vertrouwen. En ook al kan hij met zijn ogen niet meer zien, zijn oren vertellen hem precies wat er gebeurt. Dit boek werd bekroond met de Gouden Griffel

Icons of Sound Bissera V. Pentcheva 2020-11-24

Icons of Sound: Voice, Architecture, and Imagination in Medieval Art brings together art history and sound studies to offer new perspectives on medieval churches and cathedrals as spaces where the perception of the visual is inherently shaped by sound. The chapters encompass a wide geographic and historical range, from the fifth to the fifteenth century, and from Armenia and Byzantium to Venice, Rome, and Santiago de Compostela. Contributors offer nuanced explorations of the importance of intangible sonic aura to these spaces, including the temporal and performative nature of ritual music, as well as the use of digital technology to reconstruct historical aural environments. Rooted in a decade-long interdisciplinary research project at Stanford University, Icons of Sound expands our understanding of the inherently intertwined relationship between medieval chant and liturgy, the acoustics of architectural spaces, and their visual aesthetics. Together, the contributors provide insights that are relevant across art history, sound studies, musicology, and medieval studies.

Teaching Literature in the A Level Modern Languages

Classroom Katherine Raithby 2019-07-02 This book provides essential support and advice on using literature in the A level modern languages classroom, addressing key concerns such as ways to approach this task and how to maximise the benefit to students.

There are strategies for understanding works of different genres as well as ways to analyse plot, characterisation, themes and style, all presented in a logical way that allows existing teaching methods to be built upon. Including a step-by-step approach to all aspects of planning, resourcing and teaching literature in modern languages at advanced levels, this book covers essential topics such as: Why teaching and studying literature is important How to choose the text

Preparing and introducing the literary text Understanding the characters, themes, style and structure Writing examination essays Ways to spark creative language use before and beyond the set text Based on the latest A level modern languages

Based on the latest A level modern languages syllabus, this practical book will help both new and experienced teachers approach teaching literature with more confidence, which will enrich their students' language learning and inspire their creativity beyond examination requirements.
